

PROHIBITION BILL

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of Alabama: That the term "prohibited liquors and beverages" shall include and be deemed to embrace the following: (1) Alcohol, alcoholic liquors, spirituous liquors, and all mixed liquors any part of which is spirituous; foreign or domestic spirits or rectified or distilled spirits, absinthe, whiskey, brandy, rum and gin; (2) vinous liquors and beverages; (3) malt, fermented or brewed liquors of any name or description manufactured from malt wholly or part, or from any substitute thereof, beer, lager beer, porter and ale; and other brewed or fermented liquors and beverages by whatever name called; hop jack, hop-ale, hop-weiss, hop-tea, malt tonic or any other beverage which is the production of maltose or glucose, or in which maltose or glucose is a substantial ingredient; (4) any other drinks, liquors or beverages, containing one-half of one per cent of alcohol or more by volume at sixty degrees Fahrenheit; or any other liquors or liquids manufactured or sold, or otherwise disposed of for beverage purposes containing said amount of one-half of one per cent of alcohol or more; (5) any intoxicating bitters or beverages by whatever name called.

Sec. 2. That the term "retail dealer in liquors" shall mean and be deemed to designate every person, firm, association, or corporation, that sells, or offers for sale, any foreign or domestic distilled spirits or wine in less quantities than five gallons at the same time, and the term "wholesale dealer in liquor" shall mean to be deemed to designate every person, firm, association or corporation that sells, or offers for sale, foreign or domestic distilled spirits or wine in quantities of not less than five gallons at the same time; and the term "retail dealer in malt liquors" shall mean and be deemed to designate every person, firm, association or corporation that sells, or offers for sale, malt liquors in less quantities than five gallons at one time; and the term "wholesale dealer in malt liquors" shall mean and be deemed to designate every person, firm, corporation or association who sells, or offers for sale malt liquors in quantities of not less than five gallons at the same time; and the term "brewer" shall mean and be held to designate every person, firm or corporation that manufactures fermented liquors of any name or description from malt wholly or in part, or from any substitute thereof; and the term "distiller" shall mean and be held to include every person, association or corporation that produces distilled spirits, or who brews or makes mash, wort, or wash fit for distillation, or for the production of spirits, or who by any process of evaporation separates alcoholic spirits from any fermented substance, or who, making or keeping mash, wort, or wash, has also in possession or use a still.

lawful for any person, firm or corporation or association within this State to manufacture, sell, or for sale, keep or have in possession for sale, barter, exchange give away, furnish at public places or elsewhere, or otherwise dispose of prohibited liquors any beverages described in section 1 of this act or any of them, in any quantity; but this inhibition does not include, and nothing in this act shall effect the social serving of such liquors or beverages in private residences in ordinary social intercourse; provided however, that nothing in this act contained shall repeal sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of an act approved November 23, 1907, entitled "an act to prohibit the manufacture, sale, barter, exchange, giving away, to induce trade, furnishing at public places, or otherwise disposing of any alcoholic, spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, intoxicating beverages, or other liquors or beverages by whatever name called, which if drunk to excess will produce intoxication, except the sale of alcohol in certain cases and upon certain conditions, and except the sale of wine for sacramental purposes; which said sections of said act shall remain in full force and effect; any violation of this act shall be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars; to which at the discretion of the court or judge trying the case, may be added imprisonment in the county jail or confinement at hard labor for the county for not more than six months for the first conviction; and on the second and every subsequent conviction of violation of this section of the offense, shall in addition to a fine within the limits above named, be punished by confinement at hard labor for the county for not less than three nor more than six months, to be imposed by the judge trying the case.

Sec. 4. That it shall be unlawful within this State to carry on the business of a brewer, distiller, rectifier of spirits, or retail or wholesale dealer in malt liquors; and any violation of this section, whether a first or subsequent offense, shall be punishable as prescribed in section 3 for violations of that section. The carrying on or rectifier of spirits, or retail or wholesale dealer in liquors or retail or wholesale dealer in malt liquors, shall for each separate day that it is carried on constitute a separate offense, to be punished as prescribed herein.

Sec. 5. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association or corporation, directly or indirectly to keep or maintain, or in any manner to aid or abet in keeping or maintaining any of the following places, which are hereby declared to be unlawful drinking places. (1) Any place or resort where prohibited liquors or beverages, or any of them are kept to be drunk upon or about the premises by persons resorting there for that purpose; (2) any club room or other place in which are received or kept for the purpose of barter or sale, or use, or gift, a beverage, or for distribution or division among or furnishing to or used by members of any club or association of persons by any means whatever the prohibited liquors and beverages, or any of them, referred to in section 1 of this act; (3) any club room or room of any association of persons in which said prohibited liquors or beverages, or any of them, or kept or stored for the purpose of being drunk or consumed by the members of such club or other association of persons or their guests or others on the premises, or at or near the place where such liquors or beverages, or any of them, are kept or stored; (4) Any place adjacent to or near the premises of any club, corporation or association, or other combination of persons to which members of their guests or others, by the permission of members, resort for the purpose of drinking the prohibited liquors and beverages, or any of them, that are kept at or near such place.

And any of the places herein designated, if kept or maintained shall be and constitute an unlawful drinking place, and the act of keeping or maintaining any such room or place shall be deemed a separate offense for each day that it continues; any any violation of this section, whether a first or a subsequent offense, shall be punishable as prescribed by section 3 for violations of that section.

Any place or room kept or maintained in violation of the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be a common nuisance and may be abated by writ of injunction issued out of a court of equity upon a bill filed in the name of the State by the State attorney general, or any solicitor or prosecuting attorney whose duty requires him to prosecute criminal causes on behalf of the State. In the country wherein the nuisance is maintained, or by any citizen or citizens of such county, such bill to be filed in the county courts of equity generally in this State may be invoked and applied in any injunction procedure hereunder.

Any chartered club or incorporated association of persons under the laws of Alabama that is guilty of violating any of the provisions of this section of this act or maintains or keeps any such place as herein above described shall forfeit its charter, and such forfeiture may be declared by a proceeding in quo warranto against the club or incorporated association in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the unlawful act is committed.

Sec. 6. That if any section or provision of this act shall be held to be void or unconstitutional it shall not destroy the validity or constitutionality of any other section or provision which is not in and of itself void and unconstitutional; and if it is not intended by this act to interfere with the exclusive power of the congress of the United States to regulate commerce with foreign nations and among the several States, and this act shall be so construed as to avoid conflict with that clause of the constitution of the United States which confers on congress the power to regulate commerce with foreign nations and among the several States and with Indian tribes.

Sec. 7. That this act shall be liberally construed so as to accomplish the purpose thereof, which is to promote temperance and reduce and discourage the use and consumption of the said prohibited liquors and beverages described in section 1 of this act; and any device or substitute for any of the prohibited liquors and beverages, including those beverages that are commonly known and called "near beer," such as White Top, Pabst mend and other similar drinks and beverages, shall be held and deemed to be within the inhibition of this statute.

Sec. 8. That all laws and parts of laws, general, local and special, in conflict with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed; but the section from 2 to 10, both inclusive, of this act, approved November 23, 1907, referred to in section 3 of this act, are not repealed; provided, however, that this repeal shall not affect any existing right, remedy or defense or liability incurred, nor shall it affect any action or prosecution, civil or criminal, already commenced or which may hereafter be commenced for any offense already committed, or to enforce any right or penalty, or punishment under any repealed law, and as to all such cases the law in force at time of the enactment of this statute continue in force.

Sec. 9. That this act shall take effect from and after its approval by the governor, the public welfare requiring it.

Mrs. J. E. Dickenson of Bainbridge, Ga. is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Boyd, on North Oates street.

Dr. W. H. Williams thinks the "Blackberry Editor," broke faith with him, after breaking his bread while here attending the Press Association. The Doctor says that he will give a hundred dollars if another letter like that one can be found; says that this was the only one he wrote, and that Mr. Jones violated all rules of courtesy by making public a private letter, presumably, to gain a little cheap notoriety with the papers of Alabama.

They who heard the charge of Judge Thos. G. Jones to the jury yesterday say that it was a masterpiece, by one of the strongest minds on the bench. Judge Jones is not only an able and learned judge, but he keeps much closer to the hearts of the people of Alabama than one would imagine. He knew that in certain sections there was more or less prejudice against federal courts, but when he had delivered his charge, no one who heard it could feel that there was room for such prejudice.

Phil Armstrong fears that Mr. Roosevelt has fallen a victim to the sleeping sickness, not having heard from him in some time.

MADE A SUCCESS, FINANCIALLY.

The play given last night at the Elite theatre, "The Plunger," was a financial success, $101.00 being realized. It was given by the ladies of the Home Mission Society of the Foster Street Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Strickland and little daughter are to leave tonight for New York, for a few days' visit.

Joe Baker went back to the Bay today, trying to dodge the hot wave.

IN THE COURT.

Court convened this morning at nine o'clock and the civil docket was taken up. The case of the United States vs. 25 half barrels of vinegar was disposed of by the court ordering the destruction of this lot of vinegar, which had been seized on account of its failure to come up to the requirements of the Pure Food and Drug Act.

The case against one 25-horse power engine, and saw mill is on trial this afternoon, and will probably occupy the entire evening session. This is a civil case which grew out of the seizure of a large and complete copper illicit distillery which was seized near Coffee Springs, on February of last year, by Capt. J. R. Ware, Deputy Marshal, A. J. Collier and A. B. Vickory.

The first three days of the court will be taken up with civil cases, which will be followed by cases set on the criminal docket.

Capt. John R. Ware, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, with headquarters at La Grange, Ga., is here attending United States court. Capt. Ware is the oldest revenue officer in point of service, in the United States, having been destroying moonshine stills for the past twenty-seven years. He is one of the most popular men among the court officials.

To get the best results, one must work for nothing else.

Folks are funny about pictures. You never see the picture of a great man, like a president, or a base ball star, without beholding the heads of two or three fellows who have sneaked into the scene from the rear, looking for the world like they are a part of the show.

Dr. Gregory of New York has handed out one to the public to the effect that tea or coffee makes drunkards of people. Of course he pulls out several thousand actual tests made under the strictest observations, and finds, to his surprise, that we are becoming a nation of drunkards, by the use of coffee and tea.

To speak quite confidentially, Birmingham doesn't want the capital moved to that city. It has looked over the different states, and noted that wherever a town becomes the capital, other cities soon spring up in the state and become the commercial center, building on a big scale, never having state politicians hanging around and asking questions and delaying the labor.

The man who walked up to the wall map and took a pen with red ink and streaked off President Taft's tour this fall, seemed to have overlooked Dothan entirely. He puts Taft into Birmingham from Jackson, Mississippi, and runs him out through Georgia, actually stopping him at Macon and Augusta. Atlanta hasn't been heard from yet, but we suppose her possum taste hasn't died away yet sufficiently. And that reminds us: have you heard any thing recently about that Billy Possum movement which the Atlanta folks sprung on the general public last fall?

OURING THINGS BY PREVENTION.

Nathan Straus, the great New York merchant and philanthropist, went all the way to Budapest this summer to attend a pure milk congress.

He has spent a fortune to provide pure milk for the children of New York.

This man has succeeded in reducing the death rate among babies of New York to the extent that there are probably now 200,000 children between the ages of one day and five years who owe their lives to Nathan Straus.

Think of one man, single-handed and alone, saving the lives of 200,000 people. If there were the times of the heathen, Straus would be placed among the demi-gods.

Brisbane, of the New York Journal, makes of Straus' departure, occasion for an editorial on prevention.

It is easier to prevent about two-thirds of the diseases that we have than it is to prevent the ordinary railroad or street car accident.

We know, for instance, how typhoid fever comes, and we know that it is a preventable disease. We know that there is a certain germ that produces typhoid fever, and if we can keep that germ from doing business in our body, we will escape typhoid.

There is a germ that produces what is ordinarily called blood poison. The first thing is to avoid coming in contact with this germ, and the second thing, kill the germ after it gets into you.

Boys can avoid lockjaw by not sticking nails in their feet, and by not firing toy pistols, and physicians can prevent lockjaw if they quickly get at the wounded boy.

You can prevent consumption if you will live in the open air, but if you insist on living in a furnished flat, with an elevator and steam heat, and never let any air get in at you, you may have consumption.

You can prevent smallpox if you keep yourself vaccinated.

We have not got along to the point of preventing cancer yet, because the physicians have not learned what cancer is, but they will know the cause within the next five years.

You can prevent indigestion if you begin to take care of your stomach before you can talk.

Brisbane says you can prevent drunkenness by abolishing poverty, and he would abolish poverty by spreading knowledge.

You can prevent drunkenness by showing to each individual the utter and absolute folly of drunkenness, and prevent it by raising humanity to a point of self-respect that is above drunkenness.

Physicians in the work of prevention are following wise and judicious courses. They are warning and educating the individual.

The lawmakers are in the prevention business, but their methods accomplish little. For instance, in every state of the South the legislatures are trying to prevent drunkenness by passing laws prohibiting the sale of liquor. The results do not vindicate the merit of their effort.

If they will try to teach the people the folly of drunkenness, the business of drunkenness would cease from lack of demand.

The individual himself can avoid the occasion of disease, and the occasion of drunkenness, just as he can avoid the occasions of sin.—Commercial Appeal.

A man by the name of McElwain, acting mayor of New York, when the bomb is out, rounded up an audience of negroes the other day and told them that if they could stand the examination, that he saw no reason why they shouldn't get a job on the police force. Since New York has nearly everything else, there is no reason why she shouldn't have negro policemen. She has a street car line where the cars are pulled by horses, which is a good deal more than most cities have.

YES, IT'S HOT, BUT—

It is hot.

It is a fact, that this is the hottest weather we have had this season.

It is so hot till the "Is it hot enough for you?" fool has quit.

Yesterday after dinner, before Judge Jones had come into the court room, the tall, gray-haired, distinguished-looking gentleman who commands the body while the Judge is absent, took the large, sweltering audience into his confidence and told them something. He said that he knew it was hot, and that they all felt better with their coats off, but that the court wouldn't stand for it after yesterday; said they would be excused then, but after that coats would have to be worn.

It was a new audience, the most of whom had just stepped in to see how it looked, just once, to be in United States court.

After the jury was empaneled and the court was organized Judge Jones told the jurors and witnesses that while he regretted to make them uncomfortable by requesting that they wear their coats, still he insisted upon the point. He said that none of them would think of attending divine worship in the house of the Lord without their coats, and that he considered the court room as sacred a place as a church. As for himself, he said it looked about as bad to see a man get out and take a horseback ride with nothing on but his night shirt, as to appear in court without a coat.

Many of the people of Dothan have known Judge Jones for years, and all who are attending court here, have heard much of him.

The Judge showed the kindness of his heart when the jurors began to make excuses, to show why they couldn't serve on the jury. He would ask them the direct question whether their business would really suffer by their absence, leaving them to judge. In one instance, Mr. G. S. Kelly, of Slocumb, who had asked to be excused, took the second thought, and said that he couldn't say but that his business would run alright without him, and didn't press the request to be excused.

The Judge stated that he wanted busy men, for they were men who made good jurors, and he stressed the point that courts couldn't be run successfully without clearheaded business men, who wouldn't shirk jury duty without a good excuse.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE

On account of broken health I offer for sale the following property:

My house and lot on South St. Andrews Street, a ten room house, sanitary closet up stairs and down, bath room up stairs and down, with half acre of land, corner lot two blocks from town. One of the best residences in Dothan—Price Seventy-five hundred dollars. Half acre vacant corner lot, the east end of above residence lot fronting J. L. Domingus on Appletree Street—Twelve hundred and fifty dollars.

One four-room house and lot on East Main Street, next to Central Cafe, where business lots are selling for one hundred dollars per front foot.

One vacant lot 40 x 150 feet, adjoining above mentioned house and lot on east side—Twelve hundred and fifty dollars.

One six-room house and lot adjoining last mentioned lot on east side, with sanitary connection, lot 50 x 150, corner of Main and Mill Street—Price Twenty-five hundred dollars.

Ten vacant lots 50 x 100 on Mill Street between Dothan Variety Works and Main St., just across and fronting Central Depot—Price five hundred dollars each.

Twelve vacant lots on east side of Appletree St., 25 x 110. These lots are between the Central Joe Plant and Central R. R. South—Price Five Hundred Dollars each.

One vacant lot back of these twelve lots, consisting of about 1-2 acres on both Central of Georgia and Coast Line tracks, the most ideal manufacturing site in town—Price Four Thousand Dollars.

The mill plant of Dothan Variety Works, one of the best plants of its character in the South. Cost about thirty-three thousand dollars new two years ago.

The above are all close in, desirable properties, and are bargains at the prices at which they are offered, and most of them will double in value in the next two or three years. Some terms can be had by purchaser.

The history of Dothan property has always been upward and I have bought and sold hundreds of Dothan lots and have never lost a cent, but made handsome profits, sometimes doubling and tripling on them.

WARNING TO SNIFFERS

"For the love of a man," a Topeka girl wrote, and then took carbolic acid and died. It was the reading of the incident that Atchison doctors have agreed was the cause of a certain Atchison woman's serious illness. She gave a sniff of contempt when she read of a girl who killed herself "for the love of a man" and sniffed so hard that the sniff went in and affected her vital organs. The woman is married, has seven children, works like a farm hand in harvest, though her husband is in good circumstances, and hasn't had an outing in ten years. Doctors say that this sniffing in contempt is apt to prove serious when a woman sniffs as hard as this woman sniffed. She put in that sniff all the disappointment, all the contempt, all the bitterness, all the heartache of 15 years, and the sniff simply shattered her whole system, and displaced half her interior—Atchison Globe.

SHAKE WITH ANYTHING.

"Georgia would like to shake hands with Alabama," says a contemporary on 't'other side of the Chattahoochee. All right, come ahead—and that reminds us of a little story. It is about two good church men and neighbors, whom we will call Brother Brown and Brother Black. They had some kind of misunderstanding and wouldn't speak for quite a while.
Then there was a revival in the church to which both belonged and Mr. Brown became so much interested that he was convinced that he had been in the wrong with his brother and resolved to make amends. A day or two later he met Mr. Black, and holding out his hand exclaimed with much feeling: "Shake hands, Brother Black, shake hands: I feel mean-enough this mornin' to shake bands with a dog." Our Georgia brother will see the point.

THE SHOW LAST NIGHT

A large crowd was out last night to see "The Plunger" at the Little Theatre by local talent. We all know that Dothan has more musical talent both vocal and instrumental, than any other town its size but the success of some of those who took part in last night's performance justifies the belief that we also have a little dramatic talent here.

Mrs. M. A. Elmore is a accomplished clarinetist and the training of the cast for the play and new laurels to her string of successes. Outside of the usual happenings of amateurs forgetting their lines, which has almost become part of such programmes everything went along very smoothly. We might say that every one acquitted themselves with credit and let it go at that but several of those who took part stood out so clearly that they deserve special mention. Col. J. H. Hill as Uncle Tom and Dr. C. W. Hilliard as Calhoun Baldwin were exceptionally good. Paul Gendrich as Deacon Smart was the surprise of the evening. Who thought Paul could do a stunt like that?

There are several strong points in the play which were handled quite well. The final climax where Flood returns to kill the woman who rejected him was as it should have been the best of all. So well did Mr. Ruppert in the part that the audience rattled back with a sigh of relief when the officer overpowered and carried him off.

On the whole the show was a success and the large crowd went away very well pleased.

THOUGHT HE GOT AWAY

Deputy Sheriff J. C. Hicks of Geneva arrived in town this morning with Phineas the eleven year old son of Mr. Bud Davis. Phineas, a cousin of Hartford who by the request of relatives had been assigned to the Boys' Industrial School of East Lake, Ala.

They hadn't been in the town long before Mr. Hicks became aware of the fact that he was walking along the streets alone and that his partner had evidently "ducked". He at once gave the alarm and in a very few minutes the miscreant was being hunted like an escaped convict. Officer Vann searched the court house and looked under the big bridge while Mr. Hicks proceeded to look around town with the hope of finding him in time to catch the west bound train to Birmingham. But in vain. He would be compelled to go back to Hartford and tell the folks that he was fooled again. But at last Mr. Paul Fruter, detective like, had caught up on him out Main street and was rushing him in town in his auto when he was joined by "The Hawk" who was offing a near gun for the boy's return.

When last seen the couple were enjoying on their way to East Lake at least the deputy sheriff was.

CITY GOVERNMENT

Kennesaw City with a population of 110,000 voted July 14 to reject the commission form of government after having only a year before voted against it. That in 13 years has been enough to change the ward system and it has reached the point where bankruptcy was becoming a possibility with the city running behind its expenses at the rate of $100,000 a year.

Colorado Springs, Colo. has today had its first election for city officers under a new charter which had as the municipal government in a board of five commissioners. The charter, which was adopted by a vote of 3,000 to 200, in several respects is a distinct advance over the earlier forms of commission government as adopted in Galveston, Houston and other large cities.

Des Moines, which has now been under commission government for a little more than one year, draws by its annual report a highly colored administration with a saving to the taxpayers of approximately $120,000 in reduction of expenditures with better service and better paid employees than ever known under the old form of government.

The same good showing has been made in Lawrence, Wash. and Independence, Kan. all of which are operating under commission government. Missouri statutes make no provision for municipal government in cities but the last legislature created St. Joseph a city of 175,000 people a new charter which contains many of the features of the commission form. The Outlook.

Mr. Sexton Walker went to Savannah yesterday.

How Do You Get Good Paint for Fall?

Do you mix your own paint—White Lead and Oil—or have it mixed? If you do, this is a big wage for something that can't be done right by hand. Your Lead and Oil can't be thoroughly combined that way—nor give you good protection against the winter weather. Your "hand mixed" paint won't work as well—won't spread right—takes more paint to do the job. You will save money by using which is all ready for application—no time lost in mixing. Saves your time and your painter's time—It covers more square feet to the gallon—Takes less time to put it on because it works easier—It gives you more enduring protection and satisfaction. There is a High Standard Paint for every purpose including Varnish for interior or exterior. Varnish for refinishing floors and woodwork. Hard Drying Floor Paint for old floors, etc. Let us tell you about it and give you color cards, and let us help you select good combinations. You will find the prices right.

Lowe Brothers "High Standard" Liquid Paint
